Dear Mr. Farrell:

I take pleasure in adding my personal thanks to that of the participants in the Agency's Executive Development Seminar for the session with you and Mr. Brougham on "International Risk Analysis." I consider it vital that our senior officers appreciate the special concerns and approaches of the private sector in addressing a common task of assessing the objectives and stability of other, particularly Third World, countries. The Seminar members made special note of the fact that you and Mr. Brougham met with them after normal hours and only regretted that the time was necessarily limited.

Sincerely,

/s/ William J. Casey
